Secretary Report

Secretary Nick Mazzarella asked for updates to the roster and emailing list. Everyone in attendance said they were getting the emails and notices.

Alan Petrik passed out the events calendar for 2023 with updated dates.

Old Business

The engine work on Ken Jagodzinski's '29 pickup is progressing well. There have been three house visits so far. Ken is very appreciative of the assistance he has received from the Naper As' team.

Ten cars participated in the Hinkley tour conducted by Bob Fields. Linda Rigatos, and Diane Petrik accompanied their spouses. The group went to a BBQ afterward. The weather was perfect.

Three Model As attended the Sandwich Swap Meet.

Alan Petrik volunteered to help rebuild the wing tips for the B17 project in Hinkley. The project has been in process for 20 years and needs more funding.

Eleven Model As attended the Naperville Father's Day Car Show.

Gene Egert reminded everyone that Al Junco's web site for ordering Naper As' logo T-Shirts, hats, Etc has not changed. It is Erica.com/showrooms. Scroll down to Naper As' to order.

New Business

Pancreatic Cancer Walk on July 13 at the Naperville River Walk Grand Pavilion is set for 9:30. We will attend as a group with our Model As' and park at 8:00 AM so the cars are in display. We will Meet at the Colonial Restaurant at and leave at 7:30 sharp and drive in convoy to the event.

Alan Petrik discussed updates to the calendar. Some possible additional events:

- Will County Swap Meet, August 20
- Lake Forest Vet Parade and car show, August 2
- Salt Creek Car Drive-In at Riverside, Thursdays eves through August 17
- Kane County Fair Grounds, Thursdays July-Aug
- White Pines Tour, Sunday, Oct 8
- Naper As' Garage Tour Saturday Sept 9
