New Member Tim Perfitt introduced himself and was welcomed to Naper A's.

OLD BUSINESS:

The annual safety check at Voegtle's Auto Repair Shop had 20 people in attendance. Six cars were checked. The weather was cooperative and cars that were not previously checked were given priority.

The Sharon, WI Model A Day had 7 cars from Naper As. The weather started out cool but turned out nice.

Ray McMahon reminds everyone to sign up on the web site for the annual Pancreatic Cancer Walk in July. It will be started at the same location; the Naperville River Walk Beach.

NEW BUSINESS:

The group discussed some additional ideas for tours this season.

Stu Carstens reminisces about the formation of the Naper A's and what it meant to him has been posted on the club web site with its own page.

Lindy Williams mailed a $100 check in the Naper A's name to MAFFI Museum for the restoration of a 1931 Bus that will be used to transport visitors at the museum.

A joint cruise night with the Ford V8 club and the Naper A's will be held on August 17th from 5-8 at the Culver's Restaurant on Route 64 across for the Pheasant Run Resort in St Charles. This the second year we will do this.

TECHNICAL DISCUSSIONS:

Tom Marks discussed his problem with a rear end seizing. One wheel bearing wasn't tight enough and my have cause some scoring on the axle spindle. However the rear end still locks. Tom asked for help. Several club members will do a house call to resolve the problem.
